USA FOOTBALL ANNOUNCES FINAL ROSTERS FOR 2023 JUNIOR FLAG NATIONAL TEAMS

INDIANAPOLIS – USA Football, a member of the U.S. Olympic & Paralympic Committee and the sport's governing body, has announced the final rosters for the 2023 U.S. Boys' and Girls' 15U and 17U Flag National Teams that will compete in the second annual Junior Flag International Cup held from July 5-8 in Charlotte, N.C.

The national teams will compete under International Federation of American Football (IFAF) rules against top boys' and girls' teams from around the world at the international friendly tournament hosted by USA Football. The Junior Flag International Cup will be held at the United States Performance Center (USPC) and at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte.

USA Football assembled the 2023 U.S. Boys' and Girls' Flag National Teams through scouting and recruiting outreach and evaluation at the recent 2023 Junior National Team Trials. Scouting for 2024 National Team Trials invitations is underway at flag football tournaments sanctioned by USA Football across the country. The 2023 tournament calendar culminates in The One Flag Championship from July 7-9 in Charlotte, N.C.

Fourteen states are represented on the combined final U.S. 15U Boys' and Girls' National Team rosters: Florida (6), Arizona (3), Massachusetts (3), North Carolina (3), Pennsylvania (3), Texas (3), Maryland (2), New Jersey (2), New York (2), California (1), Connecticut (1), Michigan (1), Nevada (1) and Virginia (1).
